

Reporting

Learn more from your field-collected data.

Our reports give you the ability to easily sort and analyze the data collected in the field so you can review the information that is most relevant to your current needs. With Encore's robust reporting system, schedule regular reports and/or run them on the fly; each report provides an easily digestible accounting of your workers' activity.

Customize

Analyze the data that's most important to you.

Automate

Schedule reports to run whenever you want.

Precision

Eliminate chances of human error in calculations.

Share

Instantly distribute information to others.

Take your business to the next level.

Benefits of Reporting:

- Converting data into graph format makes it easier than ever to spot trends.
- Review employee productivity stats at the drop of a dime to ensure even work distribution.
- Determine more efficient business strategies based on real, accurate data.
- Stay on top of inventory needs with a top-level accounting of current resource numbers.
